Charity Hope Valentine works at a seedy Times Square dime-a-dance joint. Charity is an incurable optimist with a golden heart who longs for love but never seems to look for it in the right places, until one day the fickle finger of fate intervenes and she falls in love with Oscar, from whom she must hide her chequered past and sordid dance hall job.

With hits including 'Big Spender', 'Rhythm of Life' and 'If My Friends Could See Me Now', join WMTC for Bob Fosse's iconic Sweet Charity to see if our heroine can live 'Hopefully Ever After'...

Director: Margaret Holdom

Musical Director: Maryellen Gillard

Choreographer: Zachary Webster
